“ Bert, the world has become a much lonelier place, knowing you are no longer in it. I took for granted that you would always be here. You were the brightest star, no matter where you went or who you met. You, my dear friend, were the most brilliant. I will carry you with me always and will forever miss you. Stacie, my thoughts and prayers are with you, your children, and all your family and friends who loved Bert. Oh, Little Bert...

“ Bert was my cousin. We had not seen each other in a while but on Facebook where he was a gracious advocate of our recent RV trip (and our daily videos). He recently invited my wife and me up to his place in Maine, which I know he loved. I am sorry we did not get a chance to reconnect in person. Our hearts go out to Stacie and the whole family. “ I remember when Stacie first starting dating Bert and I thought yep, this guy is perfect for her. He was adored by so many, including my son Cole, Bert's "snack buddy". This news is devastating and I am so so sorry we lost such an amazing person.

“ You never really know how much you care and cherish someone until they are gone. We take people we love for granted and assume they will always be there. When I saw you on Tuesday I never thought it would be our last conversation or our last "see ya later Kiddo". We have had some great memories whether it was shopping for hot tubs, your toga parties, you scaring the crap out of me with that darn horn of yours, your impromptu drop bys just to say hello or planning that trip for B and I to come to Maine which I regret putting off for so long, I will never ever forget you. I will miss that boisterous laugh and bear hugs. I will miss you Bert. Stacie, Jack, Sophia, James, William and Amelia I will ALWAYS be here for you guys and words will never describe the deep sorrow I feel for all of you. Your dad loved, bragged and was so proud of ALL of you and he made it known. I love you guys, I love Bert and life will be different without him. Until we meet again, my friend, watch over your family and send them signs that you are with them still. Xoxo

“ I have known Bert since I was in high school, his Mom gave me my first and only job as a hairdresser at her salon. I loved getting to know Bert he was always happy and had that big smile on his face. When he was single I would always joke with him you will never get married and have kids. Well I think that is his greatest accomplishment his wife and his children. I continued to cut his hair after his Mom passed we always had many laughs when he came in. He was the proudest when he would bring his kids in for haircuts he loved telling me all the stories of their adventures. I lost touch in the past few years but we always joked with each other on our birthdays that I was older than him. My heart goes out to you Stacy, Bert and the kids sending hugs and prayers to you all.
